

Director's Update

It's hard to believe it is already October, but here we are! The Fall semester has started off great here on the campus of Southeastern. The fellowship has been wonderful among the students, and each week brings new adventures. We have been very busy with several activities already, and still have a rather busy time ahead of us as well.

We began the semester with a cookout and video scavenger hunt. The scavenger hunt gave the students an opportunity to interact not only with fellow students here on campus, but also with members of the local community. It proved to be a great time for all who participated.

As I had mentioned in the last newsletter, we have been "making the rounds" so to speak. So far this semester we have visited the congregations in Tishomingo, Madill, Northwest (Durant), and Wapanucka. If I have not already contacted your congregation about the opportunity to visit on a Sunday evening, I will be doing so very soon.

Our regular weekly activities have been going great as well. We continue to meet every Monday evening for our "dinner and devotional" nights. Several of you have expressed interest in helping to cook on Mondays and it has surely been appreciated. Our young men have done an excellent job in both song leading and speaking at our devotionals. Thursday nights are our activity nights, and we have done everything from floor hockey to bowling all the while enjoying wonderful fellowship.

Finally, we leave tomorrow night for our annual Fall Retreat. We will be heading to Burnt Cabin Christian Camp in Tahlequah, OK. Travis Bookout, who is the Pulpit Minister for the Morton St. Church of Christ in Denison, TX, will be speaking for us this year. Our theme for the semester is our theme for the retreat, "Be Rooted". It comes from Col. 2:6-8. Our topics for the retreat are "Be Rooted in Christ", "Be Strengthened in Faith", "Be Overflowing with Thankfulness", and "Be Mindful of Deception". The students and our family are very much looking forward to this time away from the campus.

Until next time, may God continue to bless each of you!
